Entrance Antiphon: I am the salvation of the people, says the Lord. Should they cry to me in any distress, I will hear them, and I will be their Lord for ever.

Communion Antiphon: You have laid down your precepts to be carefully kept; may my ways be firm in keeping your statutes.

COMMON ANNOUNCEMENTS

ON LEAVE: I will be on a month's leave beginning September 22, 2025. I will still be in Pembroke but unavailable. I regret having to be absent for a month, but Father Do, the Bishop and other priests will assist to ensure that Mass is celebrated on Sundays and at least one mass per day. Mass intentions will be doubled but I ask you to be generous for the intention may be at the Cathedral instead of Holy Name and vice versa.

EMBER DAYS: The Ember Days are kept on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday in a week of each of the four seasons of the year. They fall after Ash Wednesday, after Pentecost, after September 14, and after December 13. Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday were days of particularly devotion in the early church: Wednesday, as recalling the betrayal of our Lord, and Friday in memory of His Passion, Saturday was later added to these days of prayer and penance as a continuation of Friday, and as far back as the second century they were set apart as Stational days, that is as days of special religious service and fasting.

The Ember Days, although the occasion of their institution is uncertain, are a reminder of these ancient days of devotion. Their purpose is to thank God for the fruits of the earth and other gifts of nature, to teach moderation in their use, and to assist the needy. From the time of Pope Gelasius in the fifth century it has been allowed to confer the diaconate and priesthood on the Saturdays of Ember weeks.

Ember Days are no longer mandatory but still can be used as a pious exercise to give thanks to God and to pray for care of the earth and vocations. This Wednesday, Friday and Saturday are the fall Ember Days. During these days, you are asked to fast and abstain and to some extra prayers. There are handouts by the bulletins for those who wish to mark the Ember Days following the feast of the Holy Cross.
